CONVENTION PLANS BEING CONSIDERED

Officers of National Conservation Congress Confer Upon Meeting Place.

Plans concerning the coming convention of the national conservation congress, at which Col. Theodore Roosevelt is to make an address, were discussed today at the headquarters of the National Conservation Association, in the Colorado building. B. N. Baker, of Baltimore, president of the congress, conferred with Secretary Shipp and others of the execu-tive office of the association.

The principal topic of the conferonce was the place in which to hold ence was the place in which to hold the convention, and the question of representation at the meetings. The selection of the city will be definitely setled next week, when Capt. J. B. White, of Kansas City, Mo. chairman of the executive committee of the congress, arrives in Wasnington. It is authoritatively stated that either Kansas City, Mo., or St. Paul, Minn., will be chosen.

Although the congress is not to convene until the first week in September, considerable interest is being manifested throughout the country, especially since it was announced that former President Roosevelt was to address the convention. Former Forester Pinchot will be the next to address the convention. Former Forester Pinchot will be the next principal speaker.

DOG IN NEW YORK WEARS BRACELETS

NEW YORK, April 28.—Gold brace-lets with bells of the same metal attachlets with hells of the same metal attached are the very latest mode for dogs.

Guests at the St. Regis, who are not as a rule easily startied by fashion's whim, forgot their sophistication on beholding a large French poedie proudly promenading in the lobby wearing around each leg a circlet of gold chain, from which hung tiny gold bells.

They clustered around the canine beau, who showed not the least embarrassment. He was shorn close as to the rear and was shaggy as to the front. When he disappeared in the elevator with his mistress he was the object of more comment than has been inspired by any of the season's most daring tollets.

MORE RESTRICTIONS FOR PICTURE SHOWS

Proprietors of moving picture shows which are established in temporary quarters on vacant lots must obtain the consent of three-fourths of the residents and property owners of the block in order to present music and singing as a feature of the entertainment, according to an opinion of Corporation Counsel Thomas.

Notices that they are subject to the police regulation which prohibits singing, the playing of musical instruments, shouting or exhorting on the vacant lots of the District have been sent by the police to the owners of such shows.
